

CULTURE, ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Summer Concerts at the Library!

Andrea Gerhardt & Michel Franklin

Fri, July 5th, 2019, 12pm

Inspired by the work of Hildegard of Bingen, Andrea Gerhardt and Michael Franklin will present a program of meditative medieval music with voices, harp, wooden flutes, recorders, hurdy-gurdy, pipe and taper, and percussion.

Ori Dagan & Jordon O'Connor

Fri, July 12th, 2019, 12pm

Performing together for over 15 years, "Bass and Voice" duo Ori Dagan and Jordon O'Connor share a love for moving and inspiring songs, delivered with swing, heart, and an element of surprise! Expect to hear new takes on classic tunes, as well as a few hidden gems from the bebop songbook.

Debbie Danbrook

Fri, July 19th, 2019, 12pm

Debbie Danbrook is a Master Shakuhachi flute player. The Shakuhachi is an ancient Japanese flute, originally played by monks as a type of Zen. She is the first woman to have mastered this instrument. Her music is peaceful, ethereal, and meditative.

Brian Katz

Fri, July 26th, 2019, 12pm

Bridging modern jazz, classical, and music from around the world, Brian Katz is internationally acclaimed for his orchestral approach to solo guitar playing, and for his evocative compositions and improvisations. To quote music critic Alexander Schmitz: "If you want music that speaks – here it is."

Just the Two of Us

Fri, Aug 2nd, 2019, 12pm

Join us as guitarists/vocalists Mercedes Rodrigo and Gene Evans take listeners on a musical journey through times and genres, featuring songs made popular by Marvin Gaye, Grover Washington Jr., Robert Palmer, Eve Cassidy, and many more!

Toronto Reference Library
Atrium Stage (1st Floor)

Presented in Partnership with Music Can Heal.
torontopubliclibrary.ca

CULTURE, ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Summer Concerts at the Library!

Maurice Gordon & Mojamm

Fri, Aug 2nd, 2019, 6:30pm

Join us on Caribana weekend for a live reggae performance! Maurice Gordon is a composer, musician, teacher, and Afro-Jamaican music historian. He has toured and recorded with artists such as Jimmy Cliff, Toots & the Maytals, & many more!

Singing Through Life Choir

Fri, Aug 9th, 2019, 12pm

Singing Through Life is a hospice choir dedicated to offering music to people in palliative care or those otherwise confined to bed. It is their belief that, "Music can open hearts, quiet fears and touch all who are present, including family members and friends, caregivers & singers."

Kristin Lindell Trio

Fri, Aug 16th, 2019, 12pm

Kristin Lindell infuses folk & blues into her songs, telling stories of connection. Her shimmering vocals and uplifting sound is matched by her talented band. She is a choral director, a voice teacher, and has performed at festivals & venues across Canada.

Nicole Lisa Craig

Fri, Aug 23rd, 2019, 12pm

Singer-songwriter Nicole Lisa Craig plays a wide variety of genre-shifting songs, inspired by music from around the world; songs that will soothe your soul and take your spirit on a journey. She will be joined by Canadian music icon David Henman on guitar.

Steve Koven Duo

Fri, Aug 30th, 2019, 12pm

Steve Koven is a jazz composer, performer, producer, and educator. He has performed around the world, both solo and as leader of the Steve Koven Trio. He is also a professor at York U and Centennial College. The Steve Koven Duo will be performing original compositions and jazz standards.

Toronto Reference Library
Atrium Stage (1st Floor)

Presented in Partnership with Music Can Heal.
torontopubliclibrary.ca

